

Personal Statement

Honestly, 100 words is tough to describe me.

I have been part of the Evangelical Church of Cameroon since I was a child. I am passionate about the church and making a difference. I have been very involved in the Anglican church since my studies in London in 2014. I have been a server, choir member, part of the young/ish adults in London, Hamburg, and now Berlin.

I strive for diversity and equity wherever I am, and this ties up even with my job as an HR Manager. I am also still part of the Racial Justice group in Hamburg.
