Part F

By registering for the conference, participants agree that footage of the conference (Photo, video and/or audio) may be taken, stored and used for legitimate purposes, in particular public relations work and documentation, by the organisers or other participants. Please alert the conference organisers if you have any objection to this.

For participants from outside Germany we recommend to actively ensure that their travel insurances, in particular health, accident and third party liability, cover all potential costs. The organisers' liability for damage is restricted to intent and gross negligence in exercising their duties.
