

"Show me your ways, Lord..." (Psalm 25, 4)

A prayer for spiritual guidance for all God's people

Sister Julian, Diocesan Spirituality Advisor

Almighty God,

"Show me your ways, Lord, teach me your paths. Guide me in your truth and teach me, for you are God my Savior, and my hope is in you all day long".
(Psalm 25:4–5)

You are the source of all light and the quiet voice in the whirlwind. You know the depths of our hearts and the longing we have to walk more closely with You.

May hearts be open to the movements of grace and the quiet guidance of the Spirit. Seeking wisdom through reflection and companionship is a meaningful path toward spiritual clarity and a deeper connection with the divine.

May there be strength for every journey and a sense of peace in the search for truth. Let the path be illuminated for those who look for a way forward, trusting that presence and light are found in the stillness of a dedicated heart.

"Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening". (Samuel 3:10)

Amen.
